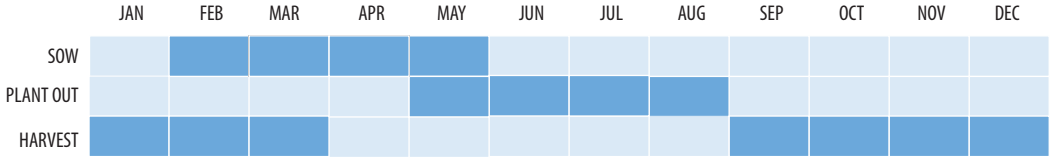
BRUSSEL SPROUTS MEZZO NANO

Let's get growing!



Growing Instructions:

Sow indoors between Feb & March for Autumn crop or outdoors April & May for winter crop.

Sow seeds thinly into pots and cover with a thin layer of compost.

When they are large enough to handle transplant the seedlings to approx. 10-12cm apart.

Once there is no risk of frost, transplant to their final growing positions 50-60 cm apart.

Harvest September- March.

A compact, mid-early Italian heirloom variety known for yielding 20–30 oval-shaped, tender sprouts per plant. Ideal for smaller gardens or balcony pots, it produces a mild, sweet flavor and is excellent for roasting or steaming.
