Growing Instructions:

Sow indoors between February & April.

Sow seeds thinly into pots and cover with a fine layer of compost.

When large enough to handle acclimatise to outdoor temperatures and plant outside after the risk of frost has passed. Plant 25-30 cm apart.

Harvest when required.

A popular, fast-growing loose-leaf lettuce variety. Known for its sweet, tender, oak-like leaves and resistance to bolting, it is ideal for "cut and come again" .
